EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

High AIMS Consortium, Cincinnati, Ohio

High AIMS is an educational consortium that includes a diverse group of 26 southwestern Ohio public school districts located in Butler, Hamilton, Warren and Montgomery counties. Its vision is to create a network of leaders who inspire students and one another to be engaged, high performing learners.

High AIMS is a highly regarded provider of professional learning opportunities focused on (1) cultivating leadership, (2) engaging students and adult learners in authentic learning experiences and (3) systemically supporting district efforts to create and sustain innovation.

The High AIMS Executive Director provides leadership and vision for High Aims partner school districts through the development and implementation of programs and activities in support of the consortium's vision and focus. This work includes cultivating and managing productive relationships with area school districts, professional development providers and businesses to ensure meaningful opportunities for the consortium and its members.
